

FOR PORT MOODY HOMEOWNERS

Your lot may now hold more than one home.

BC's new housing rules quietly changed what Port Moody properties can become. Most homeowners haven't checked yet.

SORRY WE MISSED YOU

We knocked because your street is changing quietly.

BC's SSMUH legislation, small-scale multi-unit housing, means most Port Moody lots can now hold three or four homes. Up to six near frequent transit. No rezoning hearing required.

More than 20 new homes are already on their way in Port Moody, started by neighbours who asked what was possible on their lot.

Yours may qualify. The answer is specific to your property, and finding out is free.

Curious? Questions welcome.
